III. Expenses

A. Planned Expenses – Windscreen Expense the screens should be installed on or around December 1st New PA System has been purchased and will be installed the weekend of November 23rd. Tuesday November 26th the field will be reseeded and laser leveled. Field will be closed for the Month of December

B. No incoming expenses

IV. Fundraising

A. Membership- Jenn Buys went over the different choices members will have with the purchase of membership. Jenn also went over what membership includes.

B. Merchandise- Make sure your player has ordered the Game Day Polo

C. Dinner Night – Trying to schedule Round Table Pizza. Kim Cabada will let me know as soon as it is scheduled Mc Donalds raised a profit of $670.82

D. Buy-Outs are due October 18th second half due November 18th

E. Golf Tourney was a huge success with a profit at around $10,800.00 We had eight winners for golf ball drop. Prizes for this golf ball drop were split between all 8 winners. Everything went well and we are looking forward to next year.

F. Blast Fundraiser is now over and was very successful paying for both the windscreens and a new PA System

G. Christmas Trees are scheduled to Dec. 6th. We are contracted to sell at least 200 trees, it looks like we only sold 109 trees and 132 wreaths. We are hoping the company will work with us and void current contract. If not we will have to make up difference. Mike Nienhouse stated that fundraising starts with us as parents and that we should encourage our kids to step up and do more. These fundraisers are what runs this Baseball Program.

H. Halo Classic- Mike Nienhouse did pick up the voucher. Each Player is expected to sell 20 vouchers at $25.00 each. The top two players that sell the most vouchers, one from Frosh and one from JV will suit up for the game. The game is scheduled to take place against El Modena High on April 9th at 6:30 PM at Anaheim Stadium

V. Committees – Green and Gold Banquet is scheduled for Feb. 8th. Melissa Rice would like a big committee as it is a big event. Monday May 8th Melissa will need another committee for the end of the season banquet at Black Hills Golf Course. If you can help please contact Melissa Rice.
